BINU SHRESTHA

Binu has been looking after all the finances of Krishna Arts, one of our ceramic production group, since more than 15 years. However, she always wanted to get involved as an artisan and work in the Ceramic production. For that reason, since past 2 years, she has been supervising and monitoring glazing and firing work in the workshop. With a concern due to higher damage in the production, she has started overseeing order and production plans and damage percentage. Her initiation for quality control in each step of the production has helped minimizing the damages.

She lives with her husband and both are involved in making ceramics. As an artisan, she got an opportunity to make new products and connect with different people: from the raw material collection to the finished product. Working with ACP has helped her in improving her financial status and upgrading her technical skills. Her communication skill has also enhanced and it motivates her to stay positive. Whenever there is less defective products post firing, she feels happy about it - and that is the favorite part of her work.

AMRITA DUTTA

I was married at 13, so I never could finish the important 10th grade exam. My husband was mentally unstable but I was too young to understand the situation. I just saw that I had to support my family.

I had no special skills but I had learned to make kohbar (wedding chamber) paintings and aripan (ritual rice paste designs) and these helped me earn a living. I used to sell paintings at piece rate to different buyers. The situation at my house was so dire that I kept myself awake every night just to finish one painting. Still I could not cover the expenses of my seven family members. Things changed in 2011 when I joined the Janakpur Women's Development Center and my income as an artist became stable.

CHANDRA JYOTI THAPA

"I am Chandra Jyoti Thapa. I lost my father when I was 4 months old and my mother when I was 9 years old. It was our hardest time due to our poor financial condition and there was no one to look after us since all my brothers and sisters were too young. Then, one of my teachers came to know of KTS and its facilities for children like me. So, I came to join the KTS hostel and school through my teacher when I was 9. I was admitted to class 2. Then KTS helped me to continue my study from grade 2 to a bachelor's degree Study. I live in the KTS hostel while continuing my studies with the full sponsorship of KTS. Currently, I am working in KTS as a teacher. I appreciate the support of the KTS team and respect Kiran Sir from the depths of my heart. Without the help of KTS, I could never have been in this position. I am very grateful, and I would like to thank the KTS team for their contribution, support, and help for 16 years."

Manushi

Manushi was founded in 1991. With the underlying mission of empowering marginalized women in Nepal to raise their social and economic status, Manushi started with a focus on providing women with handicraft skill development through workshops and training. However, due to common issues such as illiteracy and lack of income, it became clear that the women were unable to effectively utilize these skills to run and grow a business. In 1993, Manushi started its own production program to address this issue and provide women with opportunities to gain skills and employment. Tie and dye became the signature product and as Manushi learned to navigate the market. In time, Manushi's production program grew and became self-sustainable, allowing the organization to expand its scope of support to include a micro-credit program, the development and fostering of national and global partnerships, and other community-based programs for girls and women. Manushi Pvt. Ltd. and Manushi Arts and Craft Pvt. Ltd. is a sister concern of Manushi and is also a Member Organization of Fair Trade Group Nepal.

BABITA RAJBHANDARI

Coming from poor family background is a prime challenging social constraints for women in Nepal. But when you become single women, then the burden multiplies. Increased financial obligations and attached social stigmas (being a widow) makes very hard to accept the harsh realities of life. It's always a beyond imagination wish, for a single woman who makes small manual works with petty income, to be well articulated and make decisions at household. To participate at community level initiatives is more than the beyond cannot be fetched. To talk and listen about the issues of women's rights and empowerment and to experience and act up on the context of being subordinate in family and in community is completely two different things. Being a women worker and to live a dignified life was a difficult task.

I joined SH sixteen years before in cutting unit. Now after years of my working relationship here, my life has changed and now I am proud to be a producer.

The key to challenge the woman sub-ordination, I think, is the need of women's work that pays good economic returns and that allows to participate. The income level I received from SH has made me empowered economically that I can make household expenses as per my will. My long walk with Sana Hastakala has made me a skilled producer, a good mother, and a bread winner of my family.

Women's Skill Development Organization

Women's Skill Development Organization (WSDO) was founded on the day of International Women's Day (March 8) in 1975 A.D. It was a product of both crisis and extraordinary vision. The crisis came in the form of long-standing social and gender inequalities in Nepal. The vision came from a group of women who realized that enabling marginalized women to learn and develop new skills can transform their lives and communities. It was established when a group of Nepalese women formed an association known as the Women's Skill Development Project to empower poor, vulnerable and excluded women who had no education, were dependent on or abused by their husbands, or generally in poor health due to a lack of money and other tough circumstances. The objective of the project was to teach these women new skills related to the handicraft.

CHUMAYA PURJA

Chumaya has been working with WSDO for the past 20 years. Chumaya did not get a chance to go to school and believed she was a burden to her family because of her physical disability. After she joined WSDO, she has been working with all her heart and soul for the past 20 years. Her physical limitations are not preventing her from being a gifted doll maker and now, she teaches others her art of making dolls. Even though she is a single woman and never married or had any child, Chumaya has the full responsibility of her sister's children since she died in an accident. With the help of WSDO, they got a scholarship that covered the expenses to send them to school. After starting to work, they have never needed any other form of support. Now, Chumaya even has shares of the organization.

MAITA GURUNG

53 years old Maiti Gurung's father passed away when she was young. She grew up in a farming family and faced many financial difficulties along the way. As the eldest of the three siblings, she took most of the responsibilities of helping her mother's farm and as a result, was not able to go to school. At 17 years of age, Maiti got married and just 15 days later, her husband became paralyzed from below the hips after falling down a hill while farming. Maiti, thus, had to take on more responsibilities of supporting her mother and family as well as taking care of her disabled husband. She took her husband to Eileen Lodge (founder of NLT), where he received his treatment, where both Maiti and her husband received stitching training that later led to a job at NLT.

She now assists her husband, Bel in making beautiful leather handbags in NLT's leather workshop; the goods are exported throughout the world. She is grateful to NLT for providing her and her husband with work. Maiti has faced many struggles in her life, and she says that "if it wasn't for NLT, she does not know where she would be and cannot imagine what her life would be like if she was not offered a job."

CHILDREN-Nepal

CHILDREN-Nepal is a non-profit, non-government, social and guaranteed fair trade organization that works to promote the rights, welfare, and development of marginalized children living on the margins of society. It works directly with children and their families, helping them to break away from the effects of discrimination based on caste, disability, gender and social status. CHILDREN-Nepal (CN) was founded in 1995 by a group of Nepali professionals working in the fields of education, health and social service. They were concerned about the number of children living on the margins of society, out of reach from existing social institutions. The parents of these children had no choice but to leave home all day attempting to earn little, if any pay. This situation deprives children the ability to attend school or enjoy the games of their peers. Being, doing household work or odd jobs in hotels and restaurant just to survive. In this way they are forced on to the streets, and exposed to violence and crime. Most of the children also suffered from psychosocial/or mental health problems.

SITA B.K.

Sita B.K. grew up in an 'untouchable' family. If her parents could not find work for the day, they would have nothing to eat. More sadly, her father spent his earnings in alcohol and her parents quarreled almost every evening. Sita was forced by her parents to marry at the age of 15. She was abused by her husband and mother-in-law. She returned to her parents' home. She started to work as a construction laborer with very little income and with no hope for a better future. She even thought of committing suicide.

In 1999, Sita joined CN's Suryamukhi Handicrafts, a training & income generating program for women. With the social activities and sharing with other women in same situations, she has developed self-esteem and confidence. She remarried a man who loves her.

YANDIMA SHERPA

"Yandima moved to Kathmandu in search of employment opportunity for her husband. She is originally from Okaldhunga. She has 2 sons, 12 years and 9 years old. She works at GPI as a seasonal producer since past 6 years.

Due to poor financial condition she could not study. She has 2 brothers and 2 sisters in her family. Rather than sending her school, her parents want her to look after their house and her siblings. Her husband went to Malaysia 4years back for employment opportunity. But he was not able to pay the debt which they have borrowed for his visa process. Later on, he slowly stopped contacting them and then after he just disappeared.

Yandima has been able to educate her sons by her own. At Saturday, she also works as a household worker. After her husband's betrayal she was the only earning person in her family. She is paying the rent of her house, school fees of her children and manage their daily expenses all by her own. Also she has to pay the loan, which they took before her husband went to Malaysia. Her wish is to educate her sons so that they don't need to face the hurdles that she faced in her life.

MS. SARALA BHATTARAI

Almost 27 years ago, there were very few readymade Indian pickles available in the Nepali market. In this background, I had just retired from my teaching job and was free when I happened to be associated with WEAN Co-operative. WEAN Co-operative was providing various kinds of trainings, I decided to attend the training on pickle processing. I completed both Basic and Advance trainings.

WEAN Co-operative took the responsibility of marketing the pickles. Then with a strong determination, I started making pickles of new taste and flavor.

Now I produce varieties pickles through the Ruby Pickle Industry. They are currently popular in the market. The spices used in these pickles are my own recipe, and do not match with any other pickle available in the market.

AMRITA

Born in Jumla Sinja Village Municipality-1, Amrita is a youth lady farmer. She lives with her parents and 4 siblings; two elder brothers and 2 younger brother. Apart from part-time studying, Amrita's main occupation is farming. She visits forest many times in a week to collect fodder grass, firewood and leaf litter along with herding livestock. Her family owns 7 cattle and 25 sheep. During the month from August to October as she takes her cattle and sheep into the alpine pasture, she has to shepherd them. In the pasture she said her involvement in shepherding the livestock interesting and troublesome. While in pasture she had to live with limited food stock, and insufficient cloth to keep her body warm, she spent many nights without sleeping. She had also faced wild animal attack to the herd, 3 sheep were dragged away, this was a bitter experience, she kept weeping for many days as she couldn't afford this loss.

Three years ago Amrita became a member of Himchuli Agriculture Cooperative Jumla and Sinja Valley Group of Youth Entrepreneurs. Being a member of the cooperative/group she was greatly privileged; she has received a 7 day training about the know how on making improved farm yard manure and their application in the crop fields where chemical fertilizers and pesticides have been a no go area so far. The training course was convened by the above institutions on support of Krishi Gyan Kendra a Local Agriculture resource center Government of Nepal. She said the course also taught about the principles of organic farming as sustainable farming system for the Jumla farmers. During the training course she came to know that the Government of Nepal had declared Jumla district as organic district of Nepal.

Kevin Rohan Memorial Eco Foundation

The Kevin Rohan Memorial Eco Foundation commemorates the life of Kevin Rohan Gurung, who passed away on December 21st, 2008. The principles at the heart of KRMEF are centered around their vision for Kevin to become a holistic, biodynamic, and socially responsible individual. The projects at KRMEF are meant to provide others the opportunities that Kevin was never able to have, and has inspired us to launch the foundation as a center for teaching others.

One of the programs of KRMEF is “Mahila Shakti” workshop, “Mahila Shakti” means “women’s power” in the Nepali language.

The handicrafts produced in our workshop are made by local women who are impoverished or come from difficult backgrounds. Some have suffered from leprosy and still live with the stigma associated with the disease, making it difficult to find employment. KRMEF is proud to create such employment opportunities for women in our community, allowing them the prospect of earning a living, supporting their families and developing valuable technical skills.

All the materials are locally harvested by the disadvantaged Nepalese and brought to KRMEF in order to make jewelry.

LEELA GURUNG

Leela Gurung lost her son in 2008 when he was 7 years old. That was when she learned that the only way to grief is to give. Through KRMEF Leela and her Team have been doing a lot of community work in agriculture, health, education and environment. But being a woman herself, she thought of adding a sector supporting women. And that is how Mahila Shakti jewelry workshop was born in 2010.

She started Mahila Shakti with the focus to develop handcrafted jewelry using local materials. She and her team chose the most underprivileged women of the community, trained them on how to make jewelry.

She strongly believes on the motto that the happiest people are not those getting more but giving more. She says: “My husband and I have two hands, one for us and one for others.”

Coffee Cooperative Union Ltd. Lalitpur

Coffee Cooperative Union Ltd. Lalitpur (CCUL) was established in 2008 as the district level federation of 8 primary cooperatives in Lalitpur district. Together, these 8 cooperatives are composed of over 360 small holder coffee producers growing coffee in similar soil and agro climatic conditions throughout the southern region of Lalitpur.

The role of CCUL is to provide support, production technology, capacity building services to these members, and to market the coffee products nationally and internationally. CCUL also provides extensive social support to farmer communities. CCUL's efforts have created environmentally conscious communities producing high quality Fair Trade Coffee.

MITHRAM & MENUKA SAPKOTA

A half hour walk uphill from the nearest road of Thuladurlung Lalitpur, this coffee farm has panoramic views of the surrounding hills and valleys, the southernmost point of Lalitpur district. Mithram, a board member of the Durlung Jaibik Coffee Producer Cooperative, and his wife Menuka have been farming coffee here for 18 years. Coffee was a far superior crop choice for them, because living near the jungle, most traditional crops are destroyed by wild animals. Since they live far from the road and market, it is more effort than it is worth to grow traditional crops, but coffee gets them a premium price that allows them to cover all of their household expenses and beyond. A few years back, Mithram fell ill but was able to cover the cost of his surgery and the hospital stay during his recovery, something that the family would not have been able to afford without their coffee income. Additionally, thanks to the income from coffee farming, the couple's one eldest daughter now live and go to the technical school in the another village to receive a better technical education than is available locally. Regardless of market uncertainty, they can be assured that the cooperative will pay them a fair price for their crop, and they will receive the payment on time with fair trade premium, which provides the family a valuable financial security. This family is able to save much time and effort because the cooperative takes the responsibility of processing their coffee, which results in a higher quality exportable green bean coffee than if they had to process it themselves. They are able to produce a much higher quality coffee in a large quantity which they are then able to sell to Coffee Cooperative Union Ltd. Lalitpur (CCUL), a member of Fair Trade Group Nepal (FTGN), CCUL sells coffee at a premium price on the international market to the fair trade buyer. The cooperative shows no discrimination based on gender, caste, religion, economic status etc. and they have seen major increases in this positive thinking and attitude towards one another in their community. "Unity is the force. To be a member of a cooperative is a strong relationship between farmers and neighbours."

SARITA CHITRAKAR

"I joined Amrita Craft when I was merely 19 years old more than two decades ago. I remember working as a helper cutting thread and finishing garments. After being married it was just me and my husband taking care of each other. We did not have any external support, no property but we were both willing to work for making ends meet. I never thought or planned for anything but knew that my hard work and dedication will somehow work for me. My late boss, the founder saw potential in me early and since then I have been managing the entire garment production here."

With her leading the production side efficiency has been improving continuously. Although a stern and strict manager at times, she knows how to take care of everyone around her. She is a meticulous perfectionist and Amrita Craft is proud to have her.

RAJENDRA KUMAR SHRESTHA

Manaram Himalayan Handicraft's values and principles are about integrating time-tested tradition with innovation to create a world class healthy and tasty ready to eat foods. Our aspiration is to become the most prominent food company in the country while maintaining and building our reputation for innovative, healthy, and high-quality edible products. We give our best to create products for which most of the ingredients can be hand-sourced locally. This gives all of us at Manaram a sense of nationalistic approach to call all our products "Proudly Nepal Made" and a will to grow not only as a company but to grow the nation as we believe we are "Better together".

CHEESE CHEW

Himalayan Yaky Cheese Chew

Size: Small, Medium, Large, And XLarge

Material: Milk

Made primarily from milk, Himalayan Yaky Cheese Chew is long-lasting, hard smoked cheese chew. It was created using a traditional method with yak and cow milk. Dogs must work the end of the treat for hours, softening it with their mouths before small parts of it can be slowly chewed off. When you give this treat to your dog, you know that you are providing them with high-quality eating entertainment.

GHEE

GHEE

Manaram Ghee

Size: 500ml

Material: Milk

Manaram ghee is made from pure cow's milk. Focusing on the people's health, we are trying to serve the best centering on the pureness and the hygienic production procedure and add the best flavors in everyone's kitchen. An intent to bring extra flavors on our festivals we want to make the shelroti, phini roti, sweets etc. healthy and tasty. Manaram ghee is the best you can find in the market. Ghee is typically prepared by simmering butter, which is churned from cream (traditionally made by churning dah), skimming any impurities from the surface, then pouring and retaining the clear liquid fat while discarding the solid residue that has settled to the bottom. Spices can be added for flavor. The texture, color and taste of ghee depends on the quality of the butter, the milk source used in the process and the duration of time spent boiling.
